Scott Dikkers is the founding editor of The Onion, and its longest-serving editor-in-chief. He developed its now-famous news parody format and launched it as the world's first humor website in 1996. Ranked by Time Magazine as one of the world's top 50 "Digital Elite," Scott is also the creator of the successful entertainment website The AV Club and author of several New York Times bestsellers, including "Our Dumb Century," "Our Dumb World" and "I Went to College and it was okay."
