Leadership Lecture Series

Toni Preckwinkle
Cook County Board President

Wednesday, November 12

12:00 p.m.—12:50 p.m.

Lecture Center F3

On Wednesday, November 12, Cook County Board President Toni Preckwinkle will speak about the "Reform of Cook County Government." Don't miss this chance to hear from one of the most influential elected officials in the region and to join in the conversation about what lies ahead.

Join Toni Preckwinkle and a small group of your fellow Honors College students for lunch after the lecture!

RSVP for the lunch at

This event is co-sponsored by the Department of Political Science as part of its "The Future of Chicago" Lecture Series, which brings civic leaders to campus to examine issues with students and the community. Topics focus on social, economic, and political conditions of the Chicago metropolitan region. Former Chicago alderman Dick Simpson, professor of political science, moderates the series.

The Lecture is Free and Open to the Campus!
