

Help Chicago Youth Get a Head Start on their Financial Future!

FINANCIAL EDUCATION SPEAKERS & MENTORS NEEDED!

The Economic Awareness Council is seeking volunteers to provide youth financial education presentations. Very limited time commitment required. Flexible scheduling!

Guest speakers provide presentations on banking, budgeting, credit, saving and more.

Volunteers are also needed to work one on one with youth as mentors as well as to participate in mock interview sessions.

Tentative Spring 2015 Requests

Cook County

- Museum of Science & Industry, April 18-25, 10am – 2pm
- Bogan High School, 3939 W 79th St, Chicago, IL 60652
 - Mon/Thurs/Fri (8am – 3pm, or any time in between)
- Westinghouse College Prep, 3223 West Franklin Boulevard
 - Feb 12 or 19 (groups of volunteers needed on these dates)
- Chicago Public Library/DePaul University,
 - Mar 11, Mar 18, April 22, May 6/13 - 5:30 – 7:00pm
 - Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago, May 27 5:30 – 7:00

DuPage County

- Teen Parent Connection, Date TBD
- Willowbrook Corner, (4:45 – 5:45), April 20th and May 18th
 - Financial Education Games & Craft for Young Children

Flexible Opportunity: Judge financial education essays for scholarship competitions.

Please contact us at volunteer@econcouncil.org or call 630-740-6831 to volunteer!